

POLICIES AND RULES

In-School Behavior:

The following list of offences will result in a student being given a discipline slip and receiving a consequence from the table below:

- Saying inappropriate words, singing an inappropriate song, having an inappropriate conversation, or being in possession of inappropriate words on a paper.
- Being sent out of class for being excessively disruptive.
- Speaking or acting disrespectfully to any staff member.
- Verbal Aggression against another student including name calling, mockery and harassment.
- Failure to comply with in-school procedures.
- Cutting class or coming excessively late to class.
- Being on a website that is not required for the class taking place at that time.
- Touching school technology (computer, projector etc...) without permission of a teacher.

If a student receives a "discipline slip," for one of the above offences, he should wait quietly in the office to meet with one of the principals. Within 24 hours of receiving a discipline slip, parents will be notified by phone or email. The consequence of a discipline slip is determined by how many slips a student has on his record, as detailed in this table:

1 st offense	1 st email warning sent to parents
2 nd offense	2 nd email warning sent to parents
3 rd offense	Half day suspension
4 th offense	Full day suspension
5 th offense	3 day suspension
6 th offence	Expulsion

Each discipline slip within this category will remain on a student's record for 4 weeks, at which point it will expire.

Safety:

The following offences will result in the consequences listed in the table below:

- Fighting – Both parties involved
- In possession of dangerous item, i.e. matches
